

Workshop Agenda

"PV prosumers on the rise – how Europe can empower more people to produce, consume & sell their own electricity"

Brussels, 21 November 2019, 9h15 to 14h00

BIP, Place Royale n°11, B-1000 Brussels

Registration Link

09h15 Welcome and Introduction

Dirk Hendricks, EREF

09h30 Active Participation of Citizens in the EU Energy Transition – H2020 Results

Michaela Gigli, Innovations and Networks Executive Agency (INEA)

09h45 The new Prosumers Provisions - Challenges of Transposition

Ana Maria Sanchez Infante, DG ENER, European Commission

10h00 PV Prosumers across Europe: what they can do – and what they can't

Overview of regulatory framework for selected EU Member States

Luz Aquilar, German Solar Association (Bundesverband Solarwirtschaft)

10h15 Connecting and Integrating PV Prosumption to the Distribution Networks

Jörg Mühlenhoff, Climate Action Network Europe

10h30 PVP4Grid Project: Cost and CO₂ Reduction Potential of Renewable Energy Communities - Comparison of Selected European Countries

Johannes Radl, Technische Universität Wien & Wouter Schram, Utrecht University

10h45 EU Heroes Project: "Unlocking energy communities – new models for community solar in a post-subsidy world"

Graham Ayling, EST, UK

11h00 iDistributedPV Project: Integration and Development of Solar PV Solutions in the Distribution Grid

Enrique Doheijo, Deloitte Director, Economic Consulting-Energy

11h15 Key Barriers identified by the EU Projects PVP4Grid, EU Heroes & iDistributedPV

Johannes Vollmer, EREF & Moira Jimeno, eclareon

11h30 Coffee break

11h45 4 Interactive Break-Out Sessions – What Policy-Makers can do next (and better!)

Policy Solutions for removing Barriers and boost European PV Prosumers

13h00 Lunch

14h00 Presentation and Debate on the Results of Break-Out Sessions (~10 min each)

Dirk Hendricks, EREF & Break-Out Session Moderators

14h50 Closing Remarks

Johannes Vollmer, EREF

